Ring in the new with a deep dive into the past. Travel back to the 6th and 7th century with a tour of Hampi, Badami, Aihole and Pattadakal. Hampi, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is perhaps unmatched both in its desolation and magnificence. The sculptures and architecture of the temples at Badami, Aihole and Pattadakal, another UNESCO World Heritage Site, are exquisite legacies of a glorious heritage.

The spirit of freedom is in the air. And what could be more free than a river breaking all constraints to thunder its way down a steep precipice? The rivers are in full spate post-monsoon and the waterfalls are spectacular. The most dramatic is the Jog Falls where the Sharavathi River hurtles down 830-feet with wild abandon. Equally impressive is the plunge by the Cauvery River at the Shivanasamudra Falls.

Christmas

Christmas heralds the end of the year. Bid adieu to 2021 among the ancient monuments of Vijayapura and Bidar. The ramparts of the formidable Bidar Fort take you back to an era when horses thundered by to the sound of the war bugles as rulers battled for territory and riches. Vijayapura's architectural heritage, with monuments like the Gol Gumbaz, is an acknowledgement of the cultural inclusiveness of this land.
